Words from the Coronets

Incredibly proud of strong Glyn Dwfn showing at 11th night, including dozens of awards and Baroness Melisandia's surprise elevation to Pelican. The rapier list field for Captain of Cats was 3/4 Glyn Dwfn, with baronial champion Morgan Wyrð winning in the finals versus Glyn Dwfn member and Southmarch champion Melody Fang. Our barony continues to absolutely show up across the Summits.

Remember to continue to put in recommendations for Barony, Summits, and Kingdom-level awards

Samhain and Ancestral Remembrance Celebration

The combined event of Samhain and the Ancestral Remembrance Celebration, co-hosted by Glyn Dwfn and Myrtleholt and stewarded by Elsa van Aurec, was a well-attended and exciting event.

Robbin of Glyn Dwfn, who has been hosting baronial bardic events in their home for the past seven years, was lifted up as Bardic Champion by the bardic community they've helped build.

A set of excellent classes from the Arts and Sciences contestants spanned a period dice game, celtic knotwork, royal proclamations. HL Samwell Langdon demonstrated his teaching excellence with his "human pell" class on pad work for single sword training.

Their Alpine Highnesses Almaric and Z, and Tainists Ivan and Mina oversaw the list field, where Morgan Wyrð triumphed in the Glyn Dwfn rapier championship, and Gideon took the honor of the David of the Lame Memorial Tournament.

Dancers strutted and pranced at the peacock-themed masquerade as Colette La Trouvere called the steps. The day culminated in an incredible feast of English country fare, stewarded by Duchess Dagmar. Thanks to all who helped make this year's event a memorable one!
