

To Their Most Illustrious Majesties of An Tir,
and to Their Most Esteemed Officers,

Let it be known that we, Master Feradach mac Tralin mec Domongairt, Member of the Order of Defense, and The Honorable Robbin Bowrain, do humbly and solemnly declare our intent to serve as the Baronial Coronets of Glyn Dwfn, that we may hold these lands in Your Name.

For more than a decade, we have called the Barony of Glyn Dwfn our home, and in that time, we have borne witness to its great growth and flourishing. Through steadfast service and deep devotion to its people, we have striven to nurture the strength of its communities and the spirit of its populace.

Robbin has been a pillar of the bardic arts within the Barony. Where once no bardic fellowship stood, they have labored with diligence to bring forth a thriving community. By their hand, the voices of Glyn Dwfn have risen in song and story, producing champions of the bardic arts at both Principality and Kingdom levels for many years.

Feradach has been a stalwart champion of the combat arts in Glyn Dwfn, guiding and fostering a welcoming martial community. As a marshal and mentor, he has helped shape one of the largest and most vibrant fighting circles within the Principality, whose ranks have yielded multiple Principality champions and peers.

It is out of love for the people and traditions of Glyn Dwfn that we humbly seek to uphold and continue the noble culture fostered by Baroness Milisandia and Baron Piaras. With hearts devoted to service and hands ever ready to labor for the good of the Barony, we place our names forward in earnest petition to be entrusted with the stewardship of these lands.

Thus, with utmost respect and unwavering resolve to serve both Your Majesties and the people of Glyn Dwfn, do we set forth this declaration of our intent.

In Service and in Honor,
Master Feradach mac Tralin mec Domongairt, OD
The Honorable Robbin Bowrain
